

12/09/2018 – Memminger advises Crosslantic Capital Management on the acquisition of a significant equity stake with board representation in Atheneum Partners

Memminger has advised Crosslantic Capital Management in connection with its acquisition of a significant stake in Atheneum Partners.

Atheneum is a global platform revolutionizing market research and knowledge sharing across the business community. By cooperating and connecting them with management consultancies, listed international companies and investment companies, Atheneum wants company leaders to be able to make decisions faster.

This acquisition is in line with Crosslantic's commitment in investing in rapidly growing companies in the fields of technology-based services and consumer goods.

Memminger advised on all aspects of the transaction including structuring and due diligence to negotiating and drafting all transaction documents.
